THEIR NAMES WILL BE WRITTEN ESPECIALLY IN MY HEART: "TEN SEVEN (17)" PROMISES OF JESUS. I PROMISE THOSE WHO SPREAD THESE PROMISES!

Message dictated to Catalina Rivas, stigmatized seer.

(With Imprimatur by Bishop René Fernández, Archbishop of Cochabamba, Bolivia)

+++++

Promises of Jesus, taken from the book Jesus in "The Passion", dictated to Catalina Rivas: "Receive Jesus in the mouth and NOT in the hand."

1. To those who do not receive My own Body, My Blood, My Soul and My Divinity in their hands, I promise to fill them with My Blessings in their hands, my heart, my soul and all their being.
2. I promise them many more graces in earthly life, and consequently greater guarantees of salvation and increase of essential and accidental Glory, for all their eternal life with Me in Heaven.
3. You will feel Me in communion so fully throughout your being and with such fullness that the natural desire to touch Me will be taken away from you.
4. If you act in this way, you will receive from Me great graces and benefits for your whole house.
5. I promise those who do what I desire most "To have in their hands a special power against the enemies of the soul, and to many of them I will offer gifts of healing.
6. I promise that if they persevere, they will come in all things with greater intensity, seeking only My greatest honor and glory, and I will exalt them especially throughout all eternity.
7. I will grant to those who, out of love for the accomplishment of all my purposes, do not receive Me into their hands, through greater adoration, humility and holy respect, the gift of discernment of spirits with greater intensity.
8. Their names will be written especially in My Heart, yes, to please Me, receive Holy Communion in your mouth and not in your hand.
9. I promise that I will increase all your virtues in reward for the greatest humility that comes from never believing that your own hands are clean enough to touch me.
10. I promise that they will faithfully propagate My Doctrine and that they will more easily overcome all types of temptations.
11. Those who receive Me in their mouth and not in their hands will not depart from Me "if they do so with the respect due to them and live in this way for each day of their lives."
12. I promise that the door will not be closed to My Love for those who, out of affection for My desires, comfort Me by receiving Me always on their lips and never in their hands.
13. If they persevere in this way to please Me more by communing in their mouth, I promise them that they will come to work only for My Heart, with My Heart, in My Heart, for My Divine Heart.
14. I promise those who honour Me in this way to be very intensely and willingly heard by My Heart.
15. If in this matter which is so dear to My heart, they make Me the greatest pleasure, they will always love, through My Love, to follow My Divine movements, and I will recreate them especially, as proof of My satisfaction in the fact that they always receive Holy Communion in their mouth and never in their hand.

16. These will always do much good to souls; on the other hand, those who insist on taking Me into their hands will be hardened in many ways towards My Will and obscured as to My own desires, My own preaching and My own teaching.

17. On the contrary, those who tremble in their hands and do not touch the Sacred Consecrated Form, prepare themselves above all in their whole being, at the time of receiving Me in communion, to ask Me to be alone and nothing of them: I promise the grace to reach in a short time the highest Christian perfection, they will seek My Face with more love, they will forget each other more easily, they will always have My Heart comforted by this gesture, they will receive greater heavenly lights and will have greater joy from My Heart forever and ever.

I promise those who spread these promises:

- The gift of the knowledge of hearts. They will attain exalted glory in Heaven.

They will have a long spiritual life, although not always material, but in a few years, as if they had lived many years of holiness.

"I will give great blessings to your family. The more they spread them, the more I will devote myself to them."

"I will make them feel ineffable, in increasing fullness."

- I will not allow them to undertake any business if I do not like it.

"I will place on their path enough light that with My abundant help they will avoid evil and do not only what is right, but also what pleases Me most."

"I will give you even greater graces, countless graces, if you spread them fervently: consider it a great omission not to make my promises known."

Jesus again:

There are neither 10 nor 20 executioners who destroy My Body, there are many hands that hurt My Body by communing in the hand; the sacrilegious work of Satan.

- I promise anyone who prays for My priests "the remission of all temporal punishment due", there will be no purgatory for those afflicted by lukewarm priests, but paradise immediately after their last breath.

- As long as man has a moment to live, he still has time to turn to my Mercy and ask ME for forgiveness... Listen well, if you have a second to live, enjoy it, because in it you can earn eternal life.
