PRAYER

O Mary Immaculate, Mother of the Church, you who have always accompanied the life of the Church in France, we entrust ourselves to you fervently.

Tell us again and again: "do whatever He tells you." May the Holy Spirit, at your intercession, make our hearts burn with the desire to love Jesus. May the Church in France truly be that of your Son, the bearer of his light and grace.

In these years of necessary purification, obtain for us the lucidity and courage to reject all complacency with evil and to transform what must be, as well as gentleness and humility.

May they, by the gift of their lives, respond unreservedly to the love of God, in Jesus your beloved Son.

O Mary, conceived without sin, may our Church, in the midst of the nations, be faithful to her mission, and walk after Jesus, in deeds and in truth. Amen!
