Revelation of Heaven to the German Mystic Justine Klotz

I, Angelica, have read this text that I took in the Church at Marques de Vadillo-Madrid and it is related to what the Lord says to Giuliana Crescio, in the Book La Parola vol. VIII, where Jesus tells him that He does not want to be received in our hands, because it is a food for the soul, and not for the body, since our hands are not consecrated, we are not worthy to touch them, there are only priests who can...

Promises of our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 1) To him who refrains from using his hands when he receives the Host: My Body, My Blood, My Soul and My Divinity, I promise to give greater blessings in the hands, in the heart, in the soul and in all of his being.
- 2) I promise much more Graces in his pilgrimage to this world, with greater guarantees of Salvation, with an increase of essential and accidental glory, for all his eternal living with Me in Paradise.
- 3) He will feel Me in communion with all his being, with complete fullness, as long as he no longer wants to touch Me with his hands.
- 4) He who does this, with constancy, will receive My great personal graces and great benefits for his whole house.
- 5) I also promise to him who devotedly does what I desire, special gifts in his hands against the enemies of the soul, to many I will give gifts of healing.
- 6) I promise that if he does this with perseverance, continuity and constancy, he will succeed in everything with greater intensity, in seeking My Glory and Honor. I will raise him forever.
- 7) I will grant thus to him who for love has accomplished all My Divine drawings and does not want to take the Host in his hands, for a greater adoration, humility and holy respect, the gift of discernment of the Spirit, with more intensity.

- 8) His Name will be printed in My Sacred Merciful Heart if, to give Me more joy, he will make the Communion properly with the tongue and not with the hand.
- 9) I also promise that I will increase all its virtues, as rewards to this greater humility, which implies never to recognize his own hands . Never.
- 10) I also promise to him who will faithfully spread My Doctrine, he will more easily overcome every type of temptation.
- 11) One will not distance to the souls that receive Me on the tongue and not on the hands, if they do it with the due reverence and live like this all the days of their life.
- 12) I also promise that he will not find the door closed to My Love, who in consideration for Me, will give Me the joy of receiving the Host duly on his tongue and not in his hands.
- 13) If he does so, communicating with the mouth, he will only work for My Heart, with My Heart, in My Heart, for My Divine Heart.
- 14) I also promise to him who honors Me in this way, that My Sacred Heart will listen with more joy and intensity.
- 15) This is important to Me, and if I receive greater joy, the soul that communicates with the mouth will always please Me. And, for My Love, if he always follows My Divine teachings, I will keep it as proof of My joy, for this.
- 16) This person will always be good to souls. On the contrary, he who will always want to touch the Communion with his hand will not be with me, he will be rigid with me and obscured by what pleases me, my preaching and my magisterium.
- 17) The opposite, to the one who does not touch My Consecrated Form because his hands are trembling, that he prepares himself mentally and physically, because at the moment of Communion, he asks Me that there is only Me and nothing else.
- 18) I promise the Grace to arrive immediately to a Christian perfection; if he seeks My Face with more love, he will forget himself more easily and his heart will always be comforted by this gesture.
- 19) He will have more Heavenly Light and My Sacred Heart will always be happy for him. For the ages of the ages.

PROMISES TO THE ONE WHO WILL SPREAD THIS MESSAGE:

- 1) I promise the gift of knowledge of hearts to those who spread these promises.
- 2) He will join greater glory in Heaven.
- 3) They will have a long spiritual life (although not always material) and in a few years, as if they had lived many years in Holiness.
- 4) I will bestow great blessings upon their families.
- 5) I also promise that the more they spread them and make them known, the more I will infuse Myself into them.
- 6) I will make him feel that I will be there in a full and growing way.
- 7) I will not allow the enterprises they will make, if they do not please Me at first.
- 8) I will put enough Light on their way, because with My great help they avoid evil and do not only good but also what pleases Me the most.
- 9) And I will give him greater graces, if he spreads it with fervour.

Consider it a great omission not to make known My promises.
