

I URGE YOU TO RECEIVE THE HOLY EUCHARIST IN YOUR MOUTH, NOT IN YOUR HANDS. PROMISES OF JESUS TO THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE COMMUNION FROM THEIR HANDS

(Message from the Mother of the World)

PROMISES OF JESUS TO THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE COMMUNION FROM THEIR HANDS

From the book: "GOD SPEAKS TO THE SOUL"

Revelations of paradise to the German mystic Justine KLOTZ «With imprimatur».

Concentrated in prayer, the following promises of the Lord have been passed on to a pious and privileged soul to those who do not receive his most sacred body in their hands.

(I, Angelica, have read this text which was taken from the church of Marques de Vadillo-Madrid and which is related to what the LORD said to Giuliana Grescio in the book La Parola vol. VIII, where JESUS told her that HE does not want to be received into our hands, because it is a food for the soul, and not for our body, since our hands are not sanctified, we are not worthy to touch them, only priests can...)

Warning:

It is well understood that promises will remain unfulfilled to those who communicate, but this is a mortal sin. So the Lord does not want to be mocked, but if someone does that, he will enter into a sacrilege.

Promises of our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 1) To those who refrain from using their hands when they receive the Host: my Body, my Blood, my soul and my Divinity, I promise to give greater blessings in their hands, heart, soul and all of their being.
- 2) I promise much more graces in his pilgrimage in this world, with greater guarantees of salvation, with increased essential and accidental glory, for all his eternal life with me in Paradise.
- 3) He will feel me in communion in all his being, with a complete, so he will not want to touch me with his hands.
- 4) Anyone who does this consistently will receive great personal thanks and benefits for their entire household.
- 5) I also promise those of you special gifts in your hands against the enemies of the soul; and to many I will give gifts of healing.
- 6) I promise that if he does so with perseverance, continuity and perseverance, he will reach out more intensely to seek my glory and honor. I will raise him forever.
- 7) I will thus grant, even to those who by love carry out all my divine purposes and do not want to take Ostia in hand, for more adoration, humility and holy respect, the gift of discernment of the Spirit, with greater intensity.
- 8) His name will be printed in my Merciful Sacred Heart if, to give me more grace, he will make communion correctly with his tongue and not with his hand.
- 9) I also promise that I will increase all its virtues, as a reward for this greater humility, which implies never to recognize his own hands. Never.
- 10) I also promise those who will faithfully spread my doctrine, that they will more easily overcome all kinds of temptations.
- 11) They will not separate from their souls those who receive me on their tongue and not in their hands, if they do so with respect and live like this every day of their lives.

12) I also promise that he will not find the doors closed for my love, which for me, will give me the joy of receiving Ostia duly with his tongue and never in his hands.

13) If he does, by communicating with his mouth, he will come to work only for my Heart, with my Heart, in my Heart, for my divine Heart.

14) I also promise to those who honour me in this way that my Sacred Heart will listen to it with greater precision and intensity.

15) For me it is important, and if I receive more delay, I will always love this soul that communicates with the mouth. And for my love, if he always follows my divine teachings, I will keep it as proof of my joy, for this fact.

16) This person will always be good for souls. Instead he who will always want to touch the communion with his hand will not be with me, they will be rigid towards me and eclipsed by what I love, my preaching and my master.

17) Everything is the opposite of those who do not touch my orderly form because their hands are trembling; they prepare themselves mentally and physically, because at the moment of communion they ask me if I am there and that's all. I promise the grace to reach immediately the highest Christian perfection, if he seeks My face with more love; he will forget himself more easily and his heart will always be comforted by this gesture of him. She will have more heavenly light and my Sacred Heart will always be happy for her/him. For centuries and centuries.

Promises to those who broadcast these messages:

1) I promise the gift of knowledge of hearts, to those who divulge these promises.

2) They will attain greater glory in heaven.

3) They will have a long spiritual life (but not always material) and in a few years, as if they had lived many years of holiness.

4) I will bestow upon their families great blessings.

5) I also promise that the more they spread and make known, the more I get into it.

6) I will make them feel that I will be there in a complete and growing way.

7) I will not allow them the enterprises they undertake, if I do not like them first.

8) I will put enough light on their way, for with my great help they avoid evil and do not only good but also what I love most.

9) And I will give them greater thanks, if they spread them with fervour.

Consider this a great recommendation.
