

Daily Prayer

Jesus of Nazareth triumphed over Death,
His Kingdom is eternal, He comes to conquer the World and time.

Pity my GOD for those who blaspheme You, forgive them, they do not know what they are doing;

Pity my GOD for the scandal of the world, deliver them from the spirit of Satan;

Pity my GOD for those who flee from You, give them the taste of the Holy Eucharist;

Pity my GOD for those who come to repent at the foot of the Glorious Cross,

may they find Peace and Joy in GOD our Savior;

Pity my GOD for Your Kingdom to come, but save them, there is still time...

For the time is near, and behold, I am coming. Amen!

Come, Lord Jesus!

Recite a dozen rosaries (1 Pater, 10 Ave, 1 Gloria)

Lord, spread the treasures all over the world of Your Infinite Mercy.

Jesus promises that every home that says this prayer with great confidence every day will be protected from any cataclysm and that He will pour into hearts His Divine Mercy.

Promise made by Jesus Himself to Mrs Madeleine Aumont, March 28, 1975 in Dozulé.

* The local bishop encourages prayer on the High Butte of Dozulé, where the Cross appeared.

--

Our Lady of All Nations

Lord JESUS CHRIST, Son of the FATHER,

Now send your Spirit to Earth,

Let the Holy Spirit dwell in the hearts of all peoples,

So that they are protected from corruption,

calamities and war.

May the Lady of All Nations,

who was once Mary,

or our Lawyer.

Amen!

Imprimatur Cardinal Decourtray

--